About me

- ▶ I am a 16 year old blond and everybody knows me as Mickey. I must be the biggest blond there is but at least I am not dumb. By this I mean: Look at the people around you, most has the greatest talents in the world, but leaves it to rot and never spoken of. That's not me. I'm using my talent that God gave me to the fullest and not giving up. Some people might see that I'm crazy for practicing so hard, but at least I'm doing the right thing and making God proud. Running far distances takes me away from everything and everyone. It is something I do for myself and I can blame no one else but myself if I slip up. I also build my character on how committed I am and how hard I try to reach my goals. I've only been running for 2 years and still have a lot of dreams in front of me.

Goals

- ▶ I want to get my Gauteng colors in cross country. I want to beat my opponent in High School Kempton.
I want to get my S.A colors too.
